AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of October, 1782,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Charles Earl of Tankerville was by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

St. James's, October 3.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned to meet this Day, the Knights Companions, with the Officers of the Order hereafter mentioned, all in their Mantles, attended the Sovereign; and being called over by Garter King of Arms, a Procession was made from the King's Closet to the Great Council Chamber, in the following Order.

Duke of Grafton.

Duke of Marlborough.

Duke of Northumberland,

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Black Rod—The Register—Garter.

The Prelate.

The SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Sovereign was acquainted that the Bishop of Salisbury attended at the Door, and humbly prayed to be admitted to take the Oath of the Office of Chancellor of that Most Noble Order. Then the Bishop in his Mantle being introduced by the Sovereign's Command between Garter and Black Rod, the latter carrying on a Cushion the Purse, Gold Chain, and Badge, he was duly sworn, and invested with the Ensigns of the Order, and the Purse was delivered to him by the Sovereign, when, having kissed His Majesty's Hand, he withdrew to his Place.

The Chancellor then signified His Majesty's Pleasure for filling up the vacant Stall; and as by the Statutes none but a Knight can be elected, his Grace the Duke of Rutland was conducted by Garter and Black Rod to the Sovereign, and knighted with the Sword of State.

The Chapter then proceeding to the Election, Charles Duke of Rutland was declared duly elected; whereupon being received at the Door by the two junior Knights Companions, and preceded by Garter, bearing the Ensigns on a Cushion, and Black Rod, he was conducted to the Sovereign, and invested with the Garter, Ribbon, and George, by the two senior Knights, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual Admonitions; and his Grace having kissed His Majesty's Hand, and severally saluted the Knights Companions present, withdrew.

Garter then calling over the Knights, a Procession was made back to the King's Closet, in the same Order it came from thence, excepting that the Chancellor walked in his Place on the left Hand of the Prelate.
